

“What Role for the Remnant Church?”

A 3 day Conference at The Hayes Swanick
Organised and Subsidised by SPECTRUM

Join our two great speakers who have wide experience of pushing the boundaries so the Christian Story can be told with confidence and shown to be relevant in a noisy and confused world.

Reverend Elaine Lindridge

As Elaine gets older she is starting to discover what it means to ‘fall upwards’ (Richard Rohr).

Having worked for the Methodist Church all of her life she now finds herself in the privileged position of being the Minister for The Mother House

www.themotherhouse.co.uk

This is a gathering for pioneers who are working at the edge, or beyond the edge of the inherited church. Along with this, she takes a lead in encouraging people in her District to think about New Places For New People. See her challenging article on the Theology Everywhere website. She is looking forward to sharing insights with us. Elaine and her husband Stephen live in Newcastle and have 2 adult children.

Michael Wakelin was a former head of Religious Broadcasting at the BBC and is now the executive chair of the Religion Media Centre religionmediacentre.org.uk which is an impartial and independent organization helping the media report and understand religion and belief. He is a Methodist Local Preacher and strongly believes that society desperately needs Christianity but we have to get the right story out there. That means abandoning distractions like trying to be popular and getting hung up on our language so that we can be salt and light in the world.
